

MIDWEEK Community at PCPC

January 16 - April 23 (except March 19)

An evening of worship, dinner, fellowship, and teaching

Weekly Schedule

Vespers

5:30–6:00 pm, Chapel

Come enjoy a brief time of worship, meditation, and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper each Wednesday.

MIDWEEK Dinner

5:30–6:45 pm, Fellowship Hall

Reservation line: 214-224-2826

Enjoy dinner with your PCPC family—a great chance to gather a group together or to meet new friends! Bring the family for a delicious, balanced meal at a very reasonable price ($7 for adults ages 11-up, $3.50 for children ages 6-10, free for children under 5). Consider coming early for Vespers and staying afterwards for a class! Call for reservations by 4:00 pm, Mondays. TAKE OUT meals are also available and can be ordered on the reservation line.

Chancel Choir

7:00–9:00 pm, Room 300

Come join the Chancel Choir for rehearsal on Wednesday evenings. As always, new members are welcome to join. The choir is an eclectic group skill-wise; so a proficient musical background is not required, but do bring a passion for listening, learning, and leading. For general information regarding choir and specifics on childcare, contact Jayne Bjork, 214-224-2632, jayne.bjork@pcpc.org

For questions contact
Debbie Blanton,
214-224-2744,
debbie.blanton@pcpc.org.

Children/Youth Activities

Children's Choirs

Contact: Lynda Fray, 214-224-2636,
lynda.fray@pcpc.org

Childcare (1/16-4/23)

6:20–8:30 pm

(for ages birth–kindergarten)

Reservation line: 214-706-2797

Check in at the red Nursery desk for room assignments. Parents should register their child before the MIDWEEK session begins. Please call to cancel your reservation if your child will not be attending.

Contact: Gale Emerson, 214-224-2566,
gale.emerson@pcpc.org

Middle School and High School

Contact: Bess Cave, 214-224-2762,
bess.cave@pcpc.org

Adult Classes

Women's Bible Study:

Wisdom for Women in the World
(1/16–4/23)

6:30–8:30 pm, Rooms 107, 109

Teaching the book of Matthew with small-group time, a lecture, and study questions
$15/semester for materials

Teacher: Kay Gabrysich
Contact: Laurie Butterfield, 214-224-2722,
laurie.butterfield@pcpc.org

Wednesday Watchman Evening Class (1/16-4/23)

6:30–8:00 pm, 3717 Marquette

Believing God, by Beth Moore
$25 at first class for materials

Teacher: Becky Bain
Contact: Laurie Butterfield, 214-224-2722,
laurie.butterfield@pcpc.org

Lenten Prayer Study (2/6-3/12)

6:30-8:00 pm, Church Parlor

Here the call to worship this Lenten season through a study of prayers and praises of the Psalms

Teacher: Elizabeth Robinson

Contact: Ashley Evans, 214-224-2725
ashley.evans@pcpc.org

Men's Bible Study: Living by Faith in a World with Different Rules (1/16-4/23)

6:45–8:30 pm, Rooms 103, 104, 106

Teaching based on the book of Daniel with small-group time, lecture, and study questions.

Teacher: Pete Deison

Contact: Lawan Andersen, 214-224-2739
lawan.andersen@pcpc.org

Walk Through the Old Testament (1/16-4/9)

6:30–8:00 pm, Room 261

The Old Testament contains fantastic adventures, miracles, gruesome acts, and abominable sins. Many Christians have found the miracles and adventures fascinating since childhood, yet most Christians still admit their lack of understanding of the OT. This course seeks to put it onto a firmer foundation.

Teacher: Ken Olles

Contact: Debbie Blanton, 214-224-2744,
debbie.blanton@pcpc.org

12 Questions That Have Shaped Church History (1/16-4/23)

6:30–8:00 pm, Room 263

A study of some key moments in church history in which crucial questions were asked and doctrines were formulated. The course will intentionally move toward the tradition of which we are a part, American Protestantism.

Teacher: Jay Bennett and Jared Nelson

Contact: Debbie Blanton, 214-224-2744,
debbie.blanton@pcpc.org

Acts 1:8 (1/16-3-26)

6:30–9:00 pm, Room 305

The fact is—we are witnesses—Acts 1:8 confirms it. Learn how to witness your faith to others in a simple, fun, and effective manner.

$30 for materials (pay if you can)

Teacher: Henry Morgan and Darell Herbst
Contact: Henry Morgan, 214-692-9611

DivorceCare (1/16-4/16)

7:00–8:30 pm, Oak Lawn West

Those going through separation or divorce face situations and emotions they have likely never experienced before. The pain can be devastating. DivorceCare at PCPC is here to help those who are facing these challenges.

The 13-week course can be started at any time during the series. For more information, go to www.pcpc.org/ministries/counseling.

$15/workbook (scholarships available)

Contact: Barbara Kidd, 214-224-2742, barbara.kidd@pcpc.org

DivorceCare for Kids (1/16-4/16)

7:00–8:30 pm, Room 302

Ages 5-12 • registration required

$15/semester (scholarships available)

Contact: Caty Coffey, 214-224-2683, caty.coffey@pcpc.org

Celebrate Recovery (begins 1/30)

6:30-8:30 pm, Oak Lawn West

Celebrate Recovery is a Christ-centered 12-step ministry for those suffering from hurts, hang-ups, habits, addictions, and compulsive behaviors. It is confidential and safe, with separate groups for men and women. Working and applying the 12 steps brings freedom from addictive, compulsive, and dysfunctional behaviors and produces peace, joy, and, most importantly, a closer relationship with God and others. Progressing through the ministry reveals a personal, redeeming, loving, and forgiving Higher Power—Jesus Christ, the one and only true Higher Power.

Contact: Candie Carver, 214-224-2747
candie.carver@pcpc.org